

I Have a Little Turtle

I have a little turtle,
(finger & thumb showing small size)

His name is Tiny Tim,
(put 'frog' onto palm of opposite hand)

I put him in the bathtub,
(palms of hands up & pushing outwards e.g. towards the bath)

To see if he could swim.
(breaststroke action)

He drank up all the water,
(drinking action)

And gobbled all the soap.
(eating action- alternating hands towards mouth)

And then he went and laid in bed with bubbles in his throat.
(sleep)

Bubble. Bubble. Bubble.
POP!
(arms out & big clap)
