

End points

To know the location of Sheffield and its human and physical features.

To know the industrial heritage of Sheffield.

Knowledge

To know the location of Sheffield on a map.

To know the human and physical features of Sheffield and locate them on a map.

To know geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the United Kingdom, a region in a European country, and a region within North or South America.

To know land use of Sheffield and create a key to record types of land use – compare and contrast with other countries in the world.

Key Vocabulary

Botanical gardens	A place containing many different plants.
Heritage	A valued history.
Industrial	Businesses that provide products or services.
Leisure	Time spent away from work to relax.
National Park	A protected area of countryside.
Retail	To sell products to people.
Landscape	All the visible features of an area of land.
Land use	The function of the land.
Farm land	Land used for farming.
Historical information.	Something that provides evidence to the facts of history or is based on people and events of the past.

Key Questions

Can you locate Sheffield on a map?

Which human geographical features does Sheffield have?

Which physical geographical features does Sheffield have?

How is land used in Sheffield?

How does Sheffield's land use compare to land use in your local area?

Year 4 Sheffield

Facts

Where is Sheffield?

- Sheffield is a city in South Yorkshire, UK.
- It is close to the Peak District National Park.
- Around 560 000 people live in Sheffield.
- In the city centre, the river Sheaf meets the river Don.
- Sheffield has an industrial heritage and is famous for making steel.

